

Moving & Grooving

with Canine Joint Mobilization and Advanced Therapeutic Exercise

17 CE credit hours (RACE approval pending)

Instructed by:

Deborah Gross Torraca, DPT, MSPT,
Diplomat ABPTS, CCRP

The course will cover:

- Canine anatomy as it applies to manual therapy and joint mobilization of the dog
- The basic principles of the assessment and evaluation of peripheral joint mobilization principles based on Geoffrey Maitland
- Introductory level of assessment and evaluation of spinal joint mobilization based on Freddie Kaltenborn
- Joint mobilization treatment principles based on various techniques with regard to pain, dysfunction, and function

Friday, October 13 &
Saturday, October 14
8:30am-5:00pm (both days)

Presented by:

SPORTS MEDICINE
VOSM
ACADEMY

ThermoWave
BREAKTHROUGH MOLECULAR HEALING

10975 Guilford Road, Suite B
Annapolis Junction, MD 20701

To register, email Lfretz@vosm.com

Registration Fee - $425

Early Bird (Before September 13) - $400
(Open to Veterinarians, Physical Therapists, and Technicians certified or training for certification in rehabilitation)

-Fitting joint mobilization into a multimodal approach of canine rehabilitation and function

-Soft tissue mobilization and how and when to apply the principles

-Principles of beginning and advanced therapeutic exercise and how it fits into the multimodal approach for canine physical rehabilitation and fitness for a variety of levels

-ThermoWave Therapy, a breakthrough technology for comfortable rapid pain relief and molecular level healing